

Arts+IDEAS

FRIDAY, OCT. 3, 7:30 P.M.
MITCHELL AUDITORIUM

1700TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE COUNCIL OF NICAEA:

A LECTURE BY
DR. PAUL GAVRILYUK

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Marking the 1700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, Dr. Paul Gavrilyuk, eminent Orthodox theologian at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul, Minnesota, will explore the Nicene creed in light of points of divisions and paths of unity between Catholic and Orthodox Churches. Q&A immediately following.

The College of St. Scholastica
Braegelman Catholic Studies

SPONSORED BY THE BRAEGELMAN CATHOLIC STUDIES PROGRAM

The Braegelman Catholic Studies Program showcases Catholicism as a monument of human flourishing and is designed for students interested in deepening their knowledge of Catholicism's rich tradition and its interaction with culture. For more information contact Dr. Kevin Vaughan, program director, at (218) 723-6047 or kvaughan1@css.edu.